

AC 03 – Students of Assumption College and University fonds

Finding Aid

This fonds contains records of students and student activities at Assumption College and Assumption University, ca. 1870s-1980s. It also includes some records from Assumption High School in that period, and for the University of Western Ontario during the years of Assumption's affiliation with Western. Included are roll books and testimonials [*see note below], minutes of the Literary Society, newsletters, yearbooks, student publications, handbooks for students, resident, and faculty, promotional and recruitment brochures for Assumption, ephemera relating to special events, convocation, dramatics, and athletics, program and course listings, and news clippings. There is a small amount of material relating to student grades or schoolwork, alumni, Second World War servicemen, and deceased Basilian Fathers. Of note: correspondence relating to the Assumption victory song, a history of Holy Names College, and brochures for 1940s summer school offerings listing Wyndham Lewis and Marshall McLuhan as faculty.

NOTE (from original 1980s finding aid): "The Roll Books are lists of students attending the high school and, at times, the college. The students were boarders and, when listed in a book of testimonials, their conduct was recorded by the Superior. According to Father Lajeunesse, whom I interviewed on this subject, a testimonial was a public reckoning of one's conduct at the school. Every Monday morning the boys were gathered in the study hall and their testimonials were announced and duly recorded. Those having broken the rules and thus receiving a bad testimonial, were usually punished by not being allowed off campus when half-days occurred during the week. Half-days were Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. There was also a smattering of boys in grades seven and eight, and their conduct was also noted."
